CHAIR & ASSOCIATE/FULL PROFESSOR
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DENTISTRY AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY

The UF College of Dentistry invites applications and nominations for the chair of the Department of Community Dentistry and Behavioral Science (CDBS). The chair is an integral part of the college’s administration and provides innovative leadership and cultivates partnerships within the college and externally. The department’s mission is to eliminate disparities in health status and access to health care services, promote optimal oral health, and prevent disease through research, teaching and service. The chair is responsible for the overall administration and management of 25 full and part-time faculty, 70 staff and 36 residents.

Position Overview
Establishing a vision and strategic plan for the department; fiscal and administrative management; oversight of two AEGD programs; oversight of department programs and centers; ensuring appropriate faculty and other resources to support the DMD program; leading the department education, research, and patient care missions; recruiting and mentoring faculty; ensuring culture of excellence, hospitality, collegiality and collaboration.

Position Qualifications
- Minimum requirements include a DDS, DMD, or equivalent dental degree.
- Additional advanced education training or advanced degree preferred. Expertise in dental public health, oral epidemiology, oral health services research, behavioral sciences or pain research preferred.
- Academic rank and appointment on tenure or non-tenure track commensurate with experience and accomplishments.
- Must be a recognized and experienced leader in academic dentistry and have at least five years of administrative experience in an academic setting.
- Demonstrated leadership, communication, collaboration, interpersonal and team building skills.
- Demonstrated experience in supervising the work of others in a dental education setting.
- A record of scholarly accomplishments is also required.
- Commitment to innovation in education, research and patient care.

The University of Florida, a member of the AAU, is the largest and most comprehensive public university in Florida, with large undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate educational programs. The UF Academic Health Center and its six colleges (Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health and Health Professions, Veterinary Medicine) are co-located on the Gainesville campus, with additional teaching, research and patient care sites across Florida, and internationally.

UF is an Equal Opportunity Employer dedicated to building a broadly diverse and inclusive faculty and staff and invites all qualified applicants to apply. UF is a public institution and subject to all requirements under Florida Sunshine and Public Records laws.

Initial review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until an applicant pool is identified.

How to Apply
To apply, please go to http://jobs.ufl.edu/ and search for job number 506738.

Applicants should attach a curriculum vitae, a cover letter describing their interest in the position, and a contact list of three references with their application for consideration.

For more information about the college, visit: www.dental.ufl.edu.